

Privacy Statement

Phoenix Systems takes your privacy seriously. We may make changes to this statement from time to time due to government regulations, new technologies or other developments in the area of data protection.

Collection and use of your personal information

We will only collect personal information from you which you have voluntarily provided at a meeting, by phone, by completing the forms on our website, and/or which you have sent to us via email or post. If you provide us with your contact details, we may contact you to request further information.

You agree that we may obtain, hold and use the personal information you provide for the purposes of providing you with our services. Personal data that we process for any purpose shall not be kept longer than is necessary for that purpose. If the company experiences a data breach of any kind, we will notify our customers within 72 hours after being aware of the breach.

You have the right to withdraw consent of your data at any time, to do this please email Phoenix Systems info@phoenix-sys.co.uk with full details of your request.

How we keep your data safe

Phoenix Systems ensures that your data is secure and protected. All company devices are protected with firewalls, anti-virus software and complex passwords. Your data is disposed of professionally whether electronic or physical.

Sharing your information

Phoenix Systems do not share, sell or distribute personal data to third parties unless strictly necessary for the purpose of that data. Your data will never be transferred outside of the UK. We will share your data if we are under a duty to disclose or share your personal data to comply with any legal obligation.

Contact

If you have any questions regarding Phoenix Systems' use of your data, please contact us on info@phoenix-sys.co.uk. It is your right to lodge a complaint with the ICO if you feel it necessary, please visit www.ico.org.uk for further details.
